Students are guaranteed a weekly time slot from September-May. Because there are more weeks in each semester than the minimum number of required lessons, I allow families two weeks of cancellation flexibility for illnesses and scheduling conflicts. Please provide 24-hour advance notice if a lesson must be missed, with exception to illness. A credit will not be given for fewer lessons than the minimum requirement except when I cancel your lesson, as explained below. Lessons attended above the required number will be charged at my current rate.

If it happens that I need to cancel your lesson and you are unable to attend the required number of lessons due to my cancellation; you will receive a credit at the beginning of the following semester.

Families are responsible for purchasing recommended instructional books & materials. Participation in festivals, recitals, and additional performance opportunities are not included in tuition.

Payments are due in advance by the 1st of each month. Failure to make payment by the 1st will result in a $20 late fee.

I accept: Cash, Apple Pay, Zelle (303) 818-5958, Venmo @BenRaznick (Friend to Friend)

Please provide me with 30-day notice to switch your time slot or end lessons.
